HOUSE BILL ON SENATE AMENDMENT

House Bill No. 2009 — To regulate pardons and paroles.

SENATE AMENDMENT NO. 3

Amend House Bill No. 2009 by deleting Section 1 in its entirety and substituting instead the following:

SECTION 1. The board shall consist of five (5) members who shall be appointed by the governor. Each appointee shall hold office for a term of six (6) years, or until their successor has been appointed and qualified. However, in the initial appointment of the two (2) additional members to be appointed, one (1) to be effective July 1, 1978 and one (1) to be effective February 1, 1979, appointed for a term of three (3) years and one (1) shall be appointed for a term of five (5) years. Members shall be eligible for reappointment at the expiration of their terms. In considering persons for appointment, the governor shall take into account the prospective member's training, education, background, and experience in the criminal justice system. Vacancies occurring in an office of a member of the board before the expiration of his term by reason of death, resignation, removal or any other reason shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment for the remainder of the term.

The Division of Probation and Parole for Adult Services and its director shall be under the administrative control of the Commissioner of Correction, other language in this chapter notwithstanding.

FURTHER AMEND by deleting from the third line of Section 2 the word "Five" and substituting instead the word "Three".

FURTHER AMEND by deleting Section 7 in its entirety and renumbering the sections accordingly.

AMENDMENT NO. 2 TO AMENDMENT NO. 3

Amend Amendment No. 3 by adding to the end of the first paragraph of Section 1 the following:

Each such appointment shall be subject to confirmation by the General Assembly. If the General Assembly is in session when an appointment is made, confirmation shall be via a majority vote of each House, voting separately. (If the General Assembly is not in session when an appointment is made, interim confirmation shall be by a majority vote of a committee consisting of the Speaker of the Senate, who shall serve as Chairman, four (4) members of the Senate who shall be appointed by the Speaker of the Senate, the Speaker of the House and four (4) members of the House who shall be appointed by the Speaker of the House. Any such interim appointments will expire during the next session of the General Assembly unless re-confirmed by a majority vote of each House, voting separately.)
